THE CHARGES NOT PROVEN

Minneapolis Aldermen Cleared of Charge of Hoodlums.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., March 29.—The report of the city council committee appointed to investigate the charges of hoodlums made against certain aldermen has submitted its report to the effect that the charges were not proven. The conduct of Alderman Sterling in regard to opening a street is severely condemned.

Fatal Accident at a Cave-In.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., March 29.—A fatal accident occurred at Henderson yesterday afternoon at the residence of Dr. Dixon on the river front. The bank had caved in and the doctor and several others were at work upon it, when it again gave way, carrying one of the men with it, the others making narrow escapes. The buried man was dug out at once, but life was extinct. His name is not known.

Take Care of Your Eyes.

Dr. R. Mincer, the eminent optician of Detroit, Mich., will visit every town in this county during the winter, when it is one suffering with weak eyes, or eyes abused by inferior glasses, should not fail to see him. Orders left at the post office will be promptly attended to. No extra charge for examining or visiting patients at their homes.

The Best medical writers claim that the successful remedy for nasal catarrh must be non-irritating, easy of application, and one that will reach all the remote sores and ulcerated surfaces. The history of the efforts to treat catarrh during the past century is to admit that only one remedy has met these conditions, and that is Ely's Cream Balm. This pleasant remedy has mastered catarrh as nothing else has ever done, and both physicians and patients freely concede this fact. The more distressing symptoms yield to it.

IT WAS A GREAT SUCCESS.

Fourth Annual Convention of Wisconsin Farmers' Institutes.

PLATTEVILLE, Wis., March 29.—The fourth annual round-up of the Wisconsin Farmers' Institutes has just closed here. The attendance was ruined by the weather, yet the most valuable papers and discussions probably ever presented at any gathering of farmers in the United States were produced and will make a book of inestimable value to the farmers of the country.

The venerable Harmer Robbins, one of the best informed men and most extensively read men of the State, gave it as his opinion that "this meeting was the most successful of the kind ever held, and the most profitable aggregation of agricultural talent ever seen at any one meeting of this character in the history of the world."

A Bit of History

Twenty years ago, when a comparatively unknown minister announced that he could positively cure Catarrh, his announcement was met by many with sneers and scorn, but by many more with expressions of delight, and his own simple statement of his suffering and his cure impressed others with the necessity of purpose as well as his belief in his own ability to cure.

In reply to his announcement through the press, over 125,000 Catarrh sufferers have applied to him for relief, and it would be impossible to realize to what extent he has benefited our generation.

Initiators have sprung up in every direction, advertising their nostrums, and adding Catarrh to the long list of diseases they claim to cure; but the simple-minded old clergyman has gone on, and seen them rise and fall, so that to-day he stands almost entirely alone, announcing as of old, his still honest belief that he can cure Catarrh. His statement is now backed by so many thousands of people in all parts of the country that it is not difficult for Mr. Childs to refer parties who may not be fully satisfied, to neighbors or friends in their own locality, who will speak for themselves what this treatment has done in their cases.

Many thousands of people annually visit Troy, O., and they realize that their first impression of the Rev. T. P. Childs was correct; that he is not a doctor, nor a chemist, nor a seller of nostrums; but a simple-hearted old gentleman, whose faith in his own ability to cure catarrh is unlimited.

BLEW OUT HIS BRAINS.

Ghastly Suicide of John Schlim, a Centre, Wis., Farmer.

ASHLAND, Wis., March 29.—A ghastly suicide is reported from the little village of Centre. John Schlim, a well-to-do farmer, shot himself while temporarily deranged. He forced his wife to bring him his gun by threatening to kill both her and her daughter unless she obeyed him.

She and her daughter then ran out of the house, fearing that he would kill them anyway. Soon after they heard the explosion of the gun and upon returning found the suicide prone upon the bed, withering in gore with his brains scattered over the walls.

The suicide had loaded both barrels, cocked both locks, tied a string to both triggers, and then resting the muzzle against his forehead had fired the gun with his feet.

Don't Go Off Before You Are Ready

Particularly on a long journey. Be fully prepared. You cannot be permitted to say, unless you are accompanied with the traveler's and tourist's note, Hanchett's Stomach Bitters, most gently of appetizers, assimulators and promoters of digestion. Against sea sickness, mal-airs, cramps and colics begotten of badly cooked or unwholesome food and brackish water, nervousness, increased by travel, chronic biliousness and constipation, the Bitters is a sovereign preventive. It imparts a relish for food not altogether to your taste, and prevents it from disagreeing with you. Never was there such a capital thing for the unfortunate dyspeptic who stands in dread of the best cooked meal. Stomachic trouble caused by ill prepared viands aboard ship, on steamboats, and railroads, is soon remedied by the Bitters, which gives a quietness also to rheumatism, kidney troubles and insomnia.

A $50.00 outfit will be furnished on 30 days' time to the first responsible agent that applies for it, with a guarantee of $150.00 profit in four weeks or no pay. Exclusive control of your county given. Something new and with great possibilities. We prove our responsibility. Address: Stoves, with stamp, A. B. Jarvis & Co., Racine, Wis.

Mrs. D. B. Emerson died at her home in the town of Newark at seven o'clock Friday morning, after a lingering illness. A more extended notice will be given next week. The funeral will be held at the home next Monday.

A little mistake occurred last evening in publishing the names of the electors of the second precinct of the first ward. The polling place was located wrong. It should have read, "At the building on T. T. Croft's land, near the first ward school house, on Terrace street."

The "phool killer" has not visited Janesville this year. At 1:30 o'clock this afternoon an alarm of fire was turned in from box 34, located at the corner of Egst street, south and South Second street. On arriving at the box the firemen found that a greeny had attempted to mail a letter in a tea can box, and thus sent in the alarm.

All who have missed seeing the finest line of clothing ever exhibited in the city will have the opportunity to see them on Monday. Owing to the stormy weather we have concluded to keep them up another day, at Wilkie & Stratton's store 6 North Main street, P. S. This exhibit will cost you nothing and it is well worth your time and trouble.

The Spalding Guide for 1899 is beyond question the most instructive and interesting edition of the League's annual series of Guides yet published. Besides being the official book of the League's annual statistics of the championship campaign for 1899, it is replete with chapters of special interest, commenting on the lessons the experience of the past season has pointed out. Then, too, there are explanatory and instructive chapters on the club management, and the captainship of the professional teams of 1899; as also an analysis of the pitching of the past season, which is one of the features of the Guide. The discussion of the merits of the vital question now of absorbing interest in the baseball world is impartial, though written from a league point of view. The new method of recording the batting and fielding averages of the past season's championship campaign cannot but recommend itself to the readers of the Guide, as it is the book of a large amount of entirely unnecessary figures, while not losing a single point in the way of important data. There is one chapter, by the way, which will settle the patrons of the game, as well as a large majority of the players, and that is the one devoted to an analysis of the practical working of the reserve rule, in which are given the official averages paid to the league players from 1881 to 1898.

A Card.

To the Editor.

In order to correct an erroneous impression which seems to have been received in some quarters, from what source I do not know, permit me to state through your columns, that I have resided in Janesville for the past twelve years, and that it is my intention to remain here and attend to my duties to the best of my ability. The manner in which I have performed those duties in the past, is my guarantee for the future. My patrons will know whether the pledge is sufficient. Very respectfully,

Ed. Smith, Nightwatch.

LA GRIPPE.

BY ONE OF THE VICTIMS.

"My back is bad, my legs are queer." My eyes are dim, my head goes round, My chest discharges with roaring sound; My throat with hanks seems added thick; My lungs oppress, my heart beats quick; My stomach loathes the wholesome food Which all my life I've counted good; My inward parts seem all awry; Each laboring breath ends in a gh. My tongue is parched; alas! my nose! To fever heat the mercury goes. My lips attempt a cheery smile; My liver drowns the cheer with bile. And leaves me but the ghastly form, Like smiles of nature's native storm. The Russian has me on the hip, In vain I try, "Let go, la grippe!"

THE REGISTRATION.

Three Thousand and Twenty Names Registered in the City.

The boards of registration in the several wards and voting precincts of this city have completed the registration of voters and the names have been published. The total registration is three thousand and twenty divided as follows:

First Ward—first precinct, 221
First Ward—second precinct, 221
Second Ward—first precinct, 221
Second Ward—second precinct, 221
Third Ward—first precinct, 221
Third Ward—second precinct, 221
Fourth Ward—first precinct, 221
Fourth Ward—second precinct, 221
Fifth Ward—first precinct, 221
Fifth Ward—second precinct, 221
Total registration, 3,020

At the last meeting of the registration boards there were 23 names added to the list in the first precinct of the first ward, and 127 names were added in the second precinct of the same ward, making the total registration in the first ward 771.

There were 48 names added to the registration in the first precinct in the second ward, and 26 names in the second precinct of the same ward, making the total registration 465. In the first precinct of the fourth ward there were 43 names added, and 51 in the second precinct, making a total of 760 names. The fifth ward board added 33 names, making a total of 457 in that ward, and a grand total in the city of 3,020, being the largest registration ever known.

THE EARLY CLOSING.

A Petition Circulated to Continue the Old Agreement of Closing the Stores.

The agreement to close stores every evening (except Saturday and Wednesday) evenings which was adopted by the dry goods, clothing, and boot and shoe dealers will expire next Tuesday, April 1st. It was the intention and desire of most of the dealers to continue the agreement. The petition was therefore again circulated and all firms signed with but one exception. As most of the signatures were secured on condition that the stores all close, it will probably break the arrangement. Most of the young ladies clerks in the city formed in procession and marched to the store of the above-mentioned merchant, and requested him to sign the agreement also, but he refused. In all probability the stores will remain open.

A PLEASANT CELEBRATION.

Of Forty-Five Anniversary of the Marriage of Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Hill.

Yesterday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Hill celebrated the forty-fifth anniversary of their marriage, at their home, No. 155 South Third street. For forty-one years they had divided their joys and sorrows, and yesterday's festivities were to celebrate the anniversary of the union. A number of neighbors and friends were invited in and a few hours flew very rapidly. A daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hill, Mrs. J. B. Graveline, of Rockford, sent them a handsome wedding cake bearing the inscription "45 to 90" as her compliments. When the company dispersed it was with many congratulations and well wishes for Mr. and Mrs. Hill.

A CHOCOLATE SOCIAL.

Given at the Congregational Church Parlor by the Young Ladies Last Night.

Last evening a very pleasant social was held at the church parlors of the Congregational church. It was called a "chocolate social," and it was a complete success. A short musical programme was presented, after which Mr. F. B. Maxwell made a short talk on "chocolates" and Mr. W. J. Stratton a few remarks on "chocolates." Both were quite interesting. After the programme a lunch was served to which all did justice. The attendance was good and joy reigned supreme.

NEW NIGHT OFFICER.

Michael Conroy, Formerly in the Employ of N. Fredericks, Added to the Force.

To-morrow evening Mr. Michael Conroy, who for several years has been in the employ of Mr. N. Fredericks, the liveries, will start in as an additional night watchman on the west side. He is a young man well known in the city and will make a good officer. His petition had forty-two signers, whose property he will look after. Mr. Ed. Smith, the present watchman, will continue to serve the west side will be well protected with two night police.

A PLEASANT PARTY.

At the Home of Miss Emma Hill, No. 101 Washington Street.

Miss Emma Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hill, entertained a few friends very pleasantly last evening at the home of her parents, No. 101 Washington street, first ward. A few hours, spent quickly with games and other social amusements. At a late hour the party broke up and the guests dispersed to their homes all agreeing that they had spent a delightful evening.

UNION MEETING.

At Court Street M. E. Church To-morrow Evening.

The young people's societies connected with the Court Street Methodist, First Methodist, Congregational and Baptist churches will join in a union fellowship meeting at the lecture room of the Court Street M. E. church to-morrow evening. Rev. E. L. Eaton will address the meeting.

Requested to Meet.

All the young ladies who were in the Milkmaid's drill are requested to meet at Post hall Saturday evening at half past seven o'clock. The Executive and Post committee are also requested to meet.

Mrs. M. B. MINTON, Secy.

WAS IT SET ON FIRE?

AN UGLY RUMOR CONCERNING THE TRACY DISASTER.

The Flames Said to Have Been Started by an Old Servant—Other Capital News.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—It is confidentially stated that the mystery which has surrounded the fire on the third of February last, at Secretary Tracy's residence in this city, about his wife and daughter, as well as a morose maid, lost their lives, is about to be cleared up. There are well sustained rumors that Bridget Sweeney, the trusty old servant who has been living in the Secretary's family for fourteen years or more, has confessed that she fired the house with kerosene. Her statement is said to be that she poured kerosene oil over the dining room parlor and as far up the stairs as her stock of oil would go; that she then lit the parlor gas, set fire to the coal oil around the wainscoting and went to church.

No motive whatever is assigned for the horrible deed, and no possible incentive except insanity can be suggested. Ever since the fire Bridget Sweeney has been kept under close surveillance by the police. She was not called at the inquest, and this fact was considered very singular in view of her own strange statements as to the origin of the fire.

Her account was that she left the house at 6:40 on a morning, and the fire to go to church. She perceived no sign of fire at the time and smelled no smoke. Yet the fire was under full headway at 6:55, fifteen minutes after she left the house, and a general alarm was turned in at 6:58.

FIXING THE SCHEDULES.

The Ways and Means Committee Still Discussing the Tariff Bill.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—The republican members of the ways and means committee were in secret session nearly the entire day discussing the new tariff bill. A number of changes in regard to wool, duties were made, but the members of the committee do not care to have these made public before the bill is reported to the full committee.

Considerable discussion was given to nickel, and it was finally decided to place it on the dutiable list. The existing law and the proposed bill provided that it be admitted free of duty.

Butterworth's Option Bill Approved.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—The House committee on agriculture has approved Mr. Butterworth's bill prohibiting speculation in future deliveries of food products. The report of the committee will be unanimous. An amendment was adopted by the committee which will permit farmers to sell their crops in advance of harvest and hypothecate crops in advance of the season when they are to be harvested.

GUILTY OF MANSLAUGHTER.

The Murderer of D. B. Lindlay of Clinton, Ill., to Serve Sixteen Years.

CENTON, Ill., March 20.—In the Circuit court here the jury brought in a verdict of guilty in the case of The People vs. James K. Waldron for manslaughter in the killing of Daniel B. Lindlay in September last, and sentenced him to serve sixteen years in the penitentiary.

The opera house was crowded to hear the verdict. Waldron received the sentence with stolid indifference. Lindlay was killed in his own house, near Waldron's house, where he and Mrs. Waldron were caught together by Waldron, who alleges that he saw the two in a compromising position, and in a great rage attacked Lindlay to death. Waldron's conflicting stories about the affair and the reputable life of Lindlay were strong presumptions against him at the trial.

The utmost interest has been manifested by the people, who have crowded the building for three days to hear the extremely sensational evidence.

STUCK IN A SNOW-DRIFT.

A St. Paul Passenger Train Impaired for Three Hours.

BROADHEAD, Wis., March 20.—The St. Paul train from Mineral Point to Milwaukee was stuck over three hours in a snow-drift here last night, and here yesterday. The drift was fully four feet deep and covered the track for twenty rods.

The engine from the New Glarus branch went to the rescue and ran to the drift-bound train, but was unable to move it. In twenty minutes it was drifted in solid and had to be shoveled out.

Train men, section men, and citizens to the number of fifty or more succeeded in liberating the train in three hours and the two engines took it to Janesville. "The blizzard is the worst seen here in years."

SHOT BY A BURGLAR.

A Lawyer of Delphi, Ind., Dangerously Wounded by a Housebreaker.

DELPHI, Ind., March 20.—Larry G. Beck, a prominent attorney of this city, was shot last night by a burglar, who had entered his residence. The attorney sprang out of his bed and grappled with the burglar and knocked him down. He was following up the attack when the burglar shot him. The bullet entered the right arm and passed out at the back. The burglar escaped. Mr. Beck is in a very precarious condition.

THE CHARGES NOT PROVEN

Minneapolis Aldermen Cleared of Charge of Boodlism.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., March 29.—The report of the city council committee appointed to investigate the charges of boodlism made against certain aldermen has substantiated its report to the effect that the charges were not proven. The conduct of Alderman Sterling in regard to opening a street is severely condemned.

Fatal Accident at a Case-In.

EVANSTON, Ind., March 29.—A fatal accident occurred at the residence of Dr. J. H. Dixon on the river front. The bank had caved in and the doctor and several others were at work upon it, when it again gave way, carrying one of the men with it, the others making narrow escapes. The buried man was dug out at once, but life was extinct. His name is not known.

Take Care of Your Eyes.

Dr. B. M. Nixon, the eminent oculist of Detroit, Mich., writes every year in this country during the winter. Any one suffering with weak eyes, or eyes abused by inferior glasses, should not fail to see him. Orders left at the post office will be promptly attended to. No extra charge for examining or visiting patients at their homes.

The Best medical writers claim that the successful remedy for nasal catarrh must be non-irritating, easy of application, and one that will reach all the mucous areas and ulcerated surfaces. The history of the efforts to treat catarrh during the past obliges us to admit that only one remedy has met these conditions, and that is Ely's Cream Balm. This pleasant remedy has mastered catarrh as nothing else has ever done, and both physicians and patients freely concede this fact. The more distressing symptoms yield to it.

IT WAS A GREAT SUCCESS.

Fourth Annual Convention of Wisconsin Farmers' Institutes.

PLATYVILLE, Wis., March 29.—The fourth annual round-up of the Wisconsin Farmers' Institutes has just closed here. The attendance was ranked by the weather, yet the most valuable papers and discussions probably ever presented at any gathering of farmers in the United States were produced and will make a book of inestimable value to the farmers of the country.

The venerable Harner Hopkins, one of the best informed men and most extensively read men of the State, gave it as his opinion that "this meeting was characterized by the ablest, most diversified, and proficient aggregation of agricultural talent ever seen at any one meeting of this character in the history of the world."

A Bit of History

Twenty years ago, when a comparatively unknown minister announced that he could positively cure Catarrh, his announcement was met by many with sneers and scorn, but by many more with expressions of delight, and his own simple statement of his sufferings and his own experience with his remedy, won the confidence of those who believed in his own ability to cure.

In reply to his announcement through the press, over 125,000 Catarrh sufferers have applied to him for relief, and it would be impossible to realize to what extent it has benefited the afflicted. Inventors have sprung up in every direction, advertising their nostrums, and adding Catarrh to the long list of diseases they claim to cure; but the simple-minded old clergyman has gone on, and seen that the time had come to-day he stands almost entirely alone, announcing as of old, his still honest belief that he can cure Catarrh. His statement is now backed by so many thousands of people in all parts of the country that it is not difficult for Mr. Hopkins to refer parties who may not be fully satisfied, to neighbors or friends in their own locality, who will speak for themselves what this treatment has done in their cases.

Many thousands of people annually visit Troy, O., and they realize that their first impression of the Rev. T. F. Childs was correct; that he is not a doctor, nor a quack, nor a seller of nostrums; but a simple-hearted old gentleman, whose faith in his own ability to cure Catarrh is unlimited.

BLEW OUT HIS BRAINS.

Chaotic Suicide of John Schlimm, a Centre, Wis. Farmer.

ASHLAND, Wis., March 29.—A ghastly suicide is reported from the little village of Centre, Schlimm, a well-to-do farmer, shot himself while tampering with dynamite. He forced his wife to bring him his gun by threatening to kill both her and her daughter unless she obeyed him.

She and her daughter then ran out of the house, fearing that he would kill them anyway. Soon after they heard the explosion of the gun and upon returning found the suicide prone upon the bed, weltering in gore with his brains splattered over the walls. The suicide had bound both barrels, cocked both locks, tied a string to both triggers, and then resting the muzzle against his forehead had fired the gun with his feet.

Don't Go Off Before You Are Ready

Particularly on a long journey. Be fully prepared. You cannot be permitted to go unless you are accompanied with the traveler's and tourist's safe, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, most genial of appetizers, stimulators and promoters of digestion. Against sea sickness, migraines, cramps and colics begotten of badly cooked or unwholesome food and brackish water, nervousness, increased by travel, chronic biliousness and constipation, the Bitters is a sovereign preventive. It imparts a relish for food not altogether to your taste, and prevents it from disagreeing with you. Never was there such a capital thing for the unfortunate dyspeptic who stands in dread of the best cooked meal. Stomach trouble caused by ill prepared viands aboard ship, on steamboats, and railroads, is soon remedied by the Bitters, which gives a quietus also to rheumatism, kidney troubles and insomnia.

A $50.00 outfit will be furnished on 30 days' time to any responsible agent that applies for it, with a guaranteed $150.00 profit in four weeks or no pay. Exclusive control of your county given. Mrs. D. B. Emerson died at her home in the town of Newark at seven o'clock Friday morning, after a lingering illness. A more extended notice will be given next week. The funeral will be held at the home next Monday.

The "ghoul riot" has not visited Janesville this year. At 1:30 o'clock this afternoon an alarm of fire was turned in from box 34, located at the corner of Chestnut street, and South Second street. On arriving at the box the firemen found that a greeny had attempted to mail a letter in the slot box, and thus set in the alarm.

All who have missed seeing the finest line of clothing ever exhibited in this city will have the opportunity to see them on Monday. Owing to the stormy weather we have concluded to keep them up another day, at Wilkins & Stratton's store 6 North Main street. P. S. This exhibit will cost you nothing and it is well worth your time and trouble.

The Spalding Guide for 1890 is beyond question the most instructive and interesting edition of the League's annual series of Guides yet published. Besides being the official book of the League's annual statistics of the championship campaign for 1890, it is replete with chapters of special interest, commencing on the lessons the experience of the past season have pointed out. Then, too, there are explanatory and instructive chapters on the club management, and the capturing of the professional teams of 1889; as also an analysis of the pitching of the past season, which is one of the features of the Guide. The discussion of the merits of the vital question now of absorbing interest in the baseball world is impartial, though written from a league point of view. The new method of recording the batting and holding averages of the past season's championship campaign cannot but recommend itself to the readers of the Guide, as it is the book of a large amount of entirely unnecessary figures, while not losing a single point in the way of important data. There is one chapter, by the way, which will startle the patrons of the game, as well as a large majority of the players, and that is the one devoted to an analysis of the practical working of the reserve rule, in which are given the official salaries paid to the league players from 1881 to 1889. The fact that in nine years an aggregate of $1,072,208 was paid in salaries to the players of the National League, is one that will open the eyes of the base ball public to the absurdity of the "slavery."

A Card.

To the Editor.

In order to correct an erroneous impression which seems to have been created in some quarters, permit me to state that I do not know, permit me to state through your columns, that I have resided in Janesville for the past twelve years, and that it is my intention to remain here and attend to my duties to the best of my ability. The matter in which I have performed those duties in the past, I am now ready to perform in the future. My patrons will know whether the pledge is sufficient. Very respectfully,

Ed. Smith, Nightwatch.

LA GRIPPE.

BY ORDER OF THE VICTIMS.

"My back is bad, my legs are aching. I think I have la grippe, my dear. My eyes are dim, my head goes round. My throat is sore, my chest is tight. My lungs are oppressed, my heart beats quick. My stomach loses the whole food which all my life, I've accented good. My inward parts seem all awry; Each laboring breath ends in a gasp. My tongue is parched, a fever in my head. To fever that the mercury rose. My lips attract a chattering smile. My liver draws the cheer while I live. And leaves me but the ghastly form. Like snakes of nature's heat the storm. The Russian has me on the hip. In vain I cry, 'La grippe, la grippe!'"

THE EARLY CLOSING.

A Petition Circulated to Continue the Old Agreement of Closing the Stores.

The agreement to close stores every evening except Saturday and Wednesday evenings which was adopted by the dry goods, clothing and boot and shoe dealers will expire next Tuesday, April 1st. It was the intention and desire of most of the dealers to continue the agreement. The petition was therefore again circulated and all firms signed with but one exception. As most of the signatures were secured on credit on that day the stores all closed. Most of the young lady clerks in the city formed in procession and marched to the store of the above-mentioned merchant, and requested him to sign the agreement also, but he refused. All the stores will remain open.

A PLEASANT CELEBRATION.

OF THE FIFTY-THIRD ANNIVERSARY OF THE MARRIAGE OF MR. AND MRS. B. R. HILL.

Yesterday celebrated Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Hill the forty-third anniversary of their marriage, at their home, No. 135 South Third street. For forty-one years they had divided their joys and sorrows, and yesterday's festivities were to celebrate the anniversary of the union. A number of neighbors and friends were invited in and a few hours flew very rapidly. A daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hill, Mrs. J. B. Graveline, of Rockford, sent them a handsome wedding cake bearing the inscription "40 to 73" as her compliments. When the company dispersed it was with many congratulations and well wishes for Mr. and Mrs. Hill.

A CHOCOLATE SOCIAL.

Given at the Congregational Church, Saturday Evening, March 19th.

Let evening a very pleasant social was held at the church parlors of the Congregational church. It was called a "chocolate social," and it was a complete success. A short musical program was presented, after which Mr. F. B. Maxwell made a short talk on "chocolate," and Mr. W. J. Stratton a few remarks on "chocolate." Both were quite interesting. After the program a lunch was served to which all did justice. The attendance was good and joy reigned supreme.

NEW NIGHT OFFICER.

Michael Conroy, formerly in the employ of N. Fredericks, Adm. to the Police.

To-morrow evening Mr. Michael Conroy, who for several years has been in the employ of Mr. N. Fredericks, the liverman, will start in as an additional night watchman on the west side. He is a young man well known in the city and will make a good officer. His petition had forty-two signatures, whose property he will look after. Mr. Ed. Smith, the present watchman, will continue to serve. The west side will be well protected with two night police.

A PLEASANT PARTY.

At the home of Miss Emma Hill, No. 101 Washington street.
